

Igo and Wonwont On To The Next Adventure

Written and Illustrated by:
Juan Inigo Luis

Once upon a time there were two friends, Igo and Wonwont, taking a walk into the mushroom forest to have a picnic.

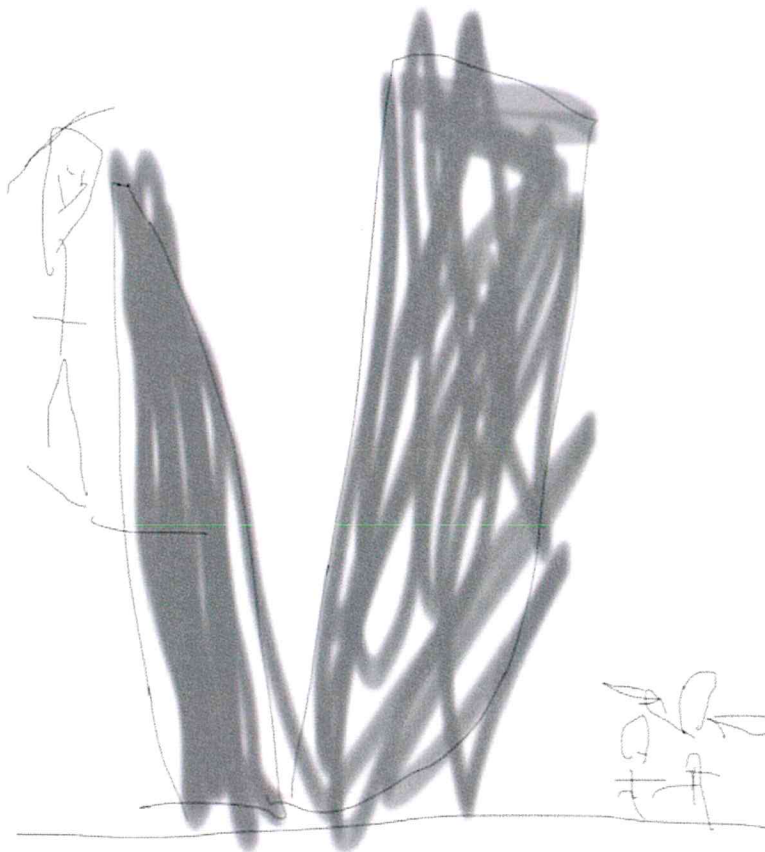

Then they saw a big red pond. They wondered if they were in the wrong forest. Turns out they were in Lamidoo forest where there were a lot of dinosaurs and colored ponds.

Suddenly, BAM! They hit a big dinosaur. Igo and Wonwont ran away while the dinosaur carried on eating grass.

They were still trying to find a place to have a picnic. Suddenly, they found a new friend, Kiara. She told them that there was a place to have a picnic at Lamidoo forest and she can help them.

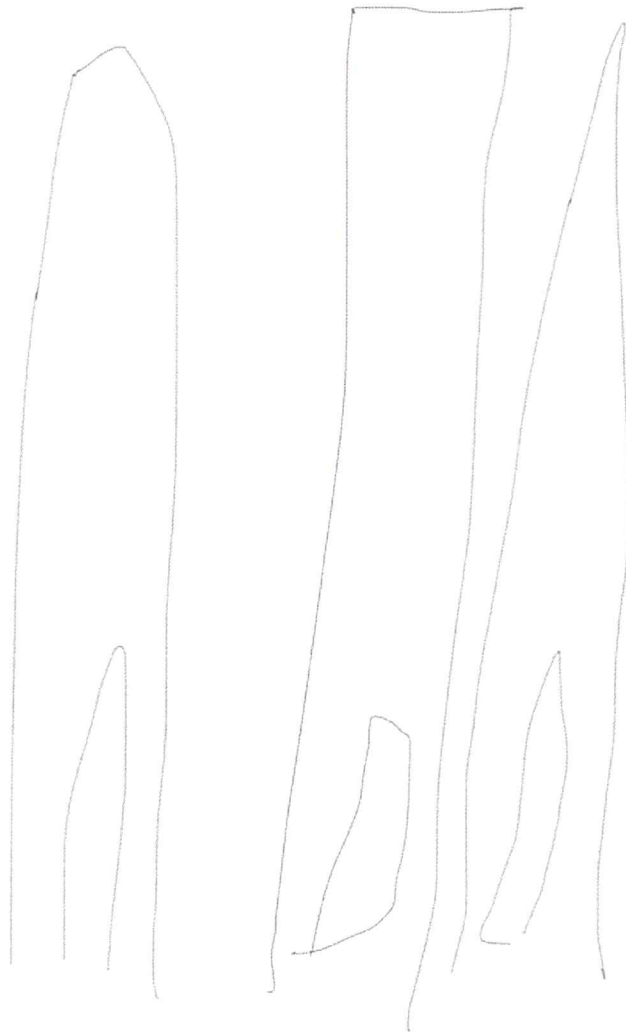

On their way, they saw 3 differently shaped boulders. Igo found something weird about the rocks in the middle.

So he rearranged them and magically turned into a door.

Inside the door, they saw a big mushroom.
Beside it was someone guarding the path.

At first, Wonwont asked if they can pass. But the guardian said, “NO!”. Then Kiara said “Can we enter pretty please?” while crying. So the guardian allowed them.

And finally, they made it to the picnic spot.
They feasted and celebrated all day.
