

The Magical Door

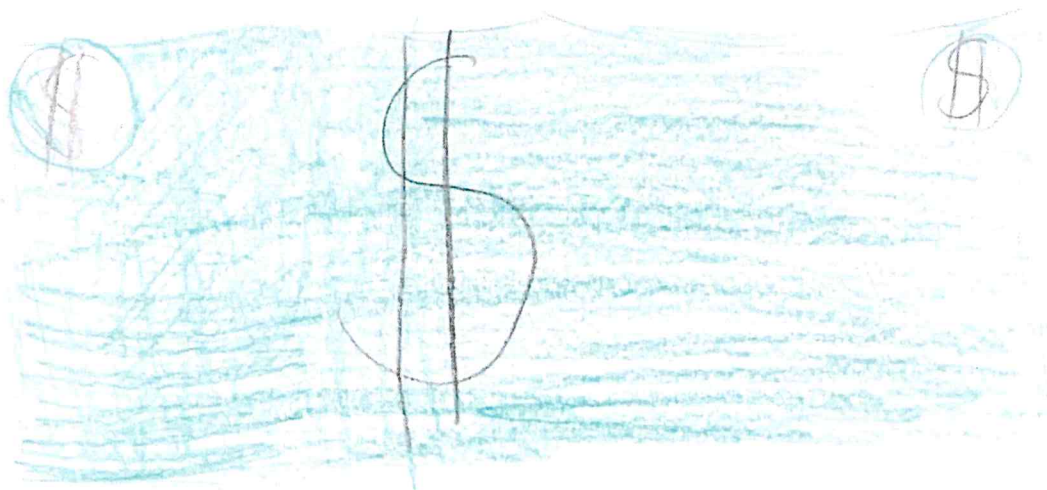

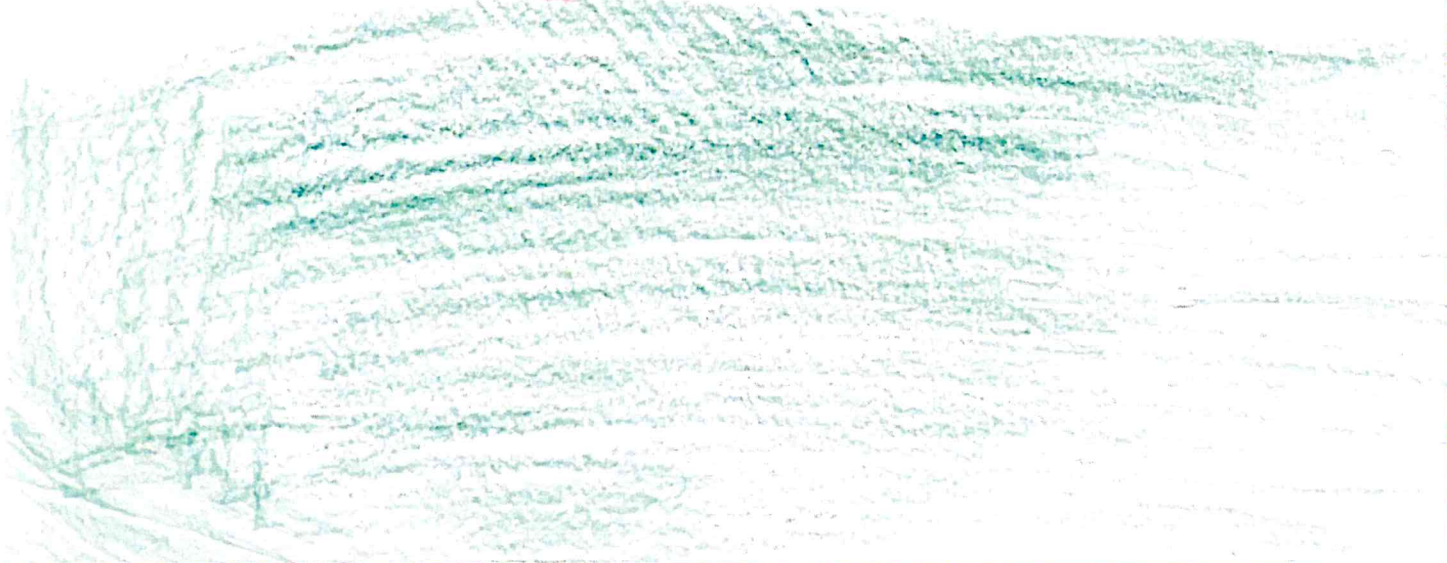

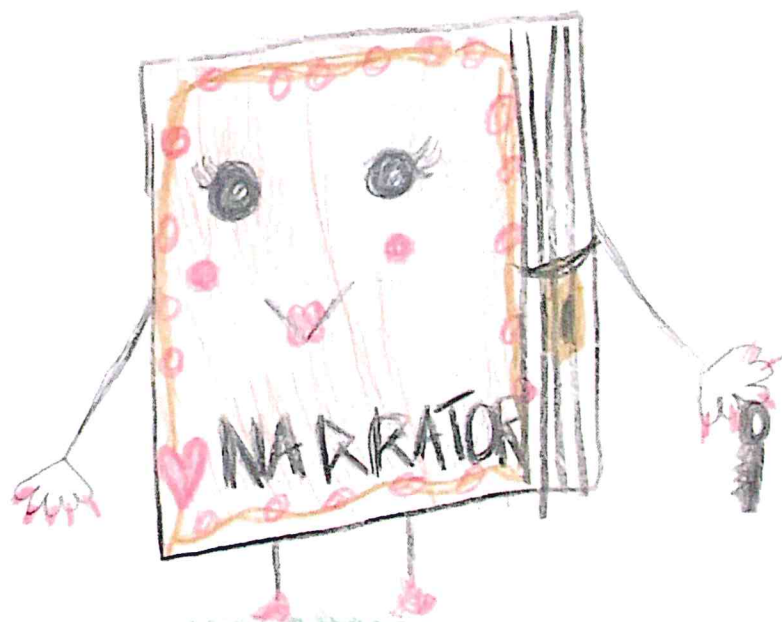

Author: Lula Johnson

Hi I'm the narrator!Oops sorry I'm breaking rule one in narrating which is telling you I'm narrating.Oops!I'm doing it again alright let's get to the story.

Once upon a time in an ordinary town with phones and stuff, not an old place with no electronics like in Cinderella.There was a girl named Lily Blossom and her sister Willow Blossom they both had I mean has because they are still alive I think,well they both had quirky and cute names. One day Willow and Lily were walking home with their dog Fido they noticed a weird door on there tree house. So of course Lily being the brave and outgoing one opened it but let Fido stay behind. As soon as they opened the door they were transported into a magical world with unicorns and every other mythical creatures you can imagine.

Of course they were scared, but Willow asked the nearest creature she found. Which was a fairy. The fairy said "You need to find the dragon cave with a rose glass orb thingy and you each get one wish." As they started there quest they stumbled across a castle, with mermaids the princess named Coral asked Lily "Oh can you find the tooth fairy for my sister Pearl, her breath is stinky." and Lily said "Oh I will. You can count on me!" As they ventured on, Lily was so distracted she almost stepped on the tooth fairy which in her case is good luck. Lily told the fairy "Have you ever visited the castle that Coral and Pearl live in?

Coral told me Pearl really needs help with her stinky breath!"The tooth fairy agreed and said she'll visit her.As Willow drifted farther past Lily ran to catch up to Willow.

Willow said "We are almost to the cave." And Lily told her "What are you going to wish for?" And Willow told her "To get us home silly!" "I'm gonna wish for a billion trillion million bucks!!!!!"Lily screamed. As they reached the glass orb both of them said their wishes and Lily had to ask a gnome for his wagon to put her money in. The glass orb told them to get home just go through the door they went through "WHAT!" Willow said angrily "I WASTED MY WISH! LILY DID YOU KNOW ABOUT THIS." "Yup." said Lily, "And quiet down, you're hurting the fairies and gnomes' ears."

THE END

"Hi it's me, the narrator again, wasn't that a good story?"
